

Parents' Right To Know

As the parent of a child attending a school receiving Title I funds you have the right to request information on the qualifications of your child's teacher. The information you may request includes the following:

- Whether or not the teacher has met the certification requirements of the state.
- Whether or not the teacher is teaching under an emergency or other provisional status.
- The bachelor's degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher in the field or discipline of his or her certificate or degree.
- Whether or not the child receives service from a paraprofessional and, if so, his or her qualifications.

Requests for this information are to be made in writing to your school's principal. The principal will provide the requested information within 10 working days.

Availability of Title I School Wide Plans

Comprehensive school wide plans for all Title I schools are available for your review at each school site. You are encouraged to submit comments and suggestions concerning the school wide plans throughout the school year.

The District is committed to making a positive difference in the lives of its students and families recognizing the essential role of parents and value of their input in all aspects of the child's education.
